

Graham Jones PhD

Founder and Managing Director

Graham's experience of consulting with high level performers spans more than 25 years and includes working closely with Olympic and World Champions from a variety of sports, military personnel and senior leaders and their teams in FTSE 100 and Fortune 500 companies.

Before his appointment to Professor of Elite Performance Psychology at Bangor University, Graham was a Reader at Loughborough University. He has more than 150 publications in the area of top level performance, including his latest book, Top Performance Leadership.

Specialist areas

- Consulting with Boards and Executive Teams
- Coaching leaders in high profile roles
- Leading change
- Strategy development
- Creating top performance teams
- Coaching top talent
- Growing SMEs
- Developing mental toughness
- Keynote presentations

Selection of Graham's client experience

- Heathrow Airport – change management programme
- Marie Stopes International – consulting with the Board
- Marks & Spencer – senior leader development
- HSBC – 1-1 mental toughness coaching of senior equity traders
- St Mary's Hospital, Paddington – 1-1 performance coaching of consultants
- Barclaycard – Senior leader development
- Royal London Society for Blind People – strategy development with the Board
- Coca Cola Enterprises – Board development and culture change
- Royal Marines – creating a coaching culture
- GE – presentation on 'thriving on pressure to top 120 EMEA leaders
- JP Morgan – presentation on 'stepping up to the next level' to top 220 EMEA leaders

"Graham Jones encouraged and inspired us to be self-critical, frank, and honest with each other about our successes and challenges as a senior team leading a multinational organisation with over 8000 employees. We will be a stronger more cohesive, and more forward thinking team in the future as a result of the journey on which Graham launched us" Dana Hovig, CEO of Marie Stopes International.

"Graham was the keynote speaker at our Leadership Conference and gave a clear, incisive, inspiring and tailored presentation which stimulated a lot of debate". David Richardson, CEO of Laboratory for the Government Chemist (LGC).