

Mike Nelson

Associate Consultant

Mike's vast experience includes 10 years as a pharmacist in UK Healthcare followed by 15 years as an Organisation Development Manager in a major UK retail company with an annual turnover in excess of £11 billion and employees of 95,000.

It is not just Mike's experience that fits so well with TPC's offering. His personal values and clear passion for making a real difference also fit perfectly with how TPC's people aim to do a great job and enjoy it at the same time.

Mike lives with his family in the North West of England, travelling extensively for work. He is an accomplished pilot and when he is not flying planes, he enjoys walking, reading, skiing, music, dance and theatre.

Specialist areas

- Organisation development and strategic consultancy
- Bespoke organisational development programme design and delivery
- Design & delivery of Development & Assessment Centres
- One-to-one coaching
- Leadership Development
- Team development/Team coaching
- Mediation and negotiation services

Selection of Mike's Client Experience

- Central London Healthcare – Management Board development work
- Sainsbury's plc – Lead facilitator in major change programme for top 1000 leaders
- Virgin Active – Design and co-delivery of Senior Management Development Centre
- Transport for London – Team development & leadership/change programme for Information Management & Road Network Directorate
- Defra – Design and delivery of Performance Appraisal workshops
- easyJet – Consultation, design and delivery of Leadership programme for top 50 leaders, including the Board
- Marie Curie Charity – Executive coaching and team development