

Sue White

Associate Consultant

Sue is a Group HR Director and Organisation Development Specialist with over 25 years leading international HR teams and business partnering with leaders in Jaguar Land Rover, Peugeot SA, Johnson Controls Automotive Ltd, Alstom SA and United Technology Corporation.

A key influencer on the board and strategic leader in any executive leadership team, Sue is recognised for her ability to develop HR business strategy, lead the talent agenda, build outstanding relationships, drive transformational change, deliver results and engage people.

When Sue is not thriving on the latest organisational challenge, she enjoys watching her two boys swim or play rugby and cricket.

Married to Tony, Sue loves her out-door life in Lancashire be it walking, cycling or the occasional live music gig in Manchester where she grew up.

Specialist areas

- Board & executive leadership development
- Developing HR strategy
- HR Business Partnering
- Talent resourcing and succession management
- Organisation Design
- Change management
- Employee engagement
- Team development
- Coaching
- Industrial and Employee Relations

Sue's strategic leadership and international experience with an emphasis on improving business performance through effective people strategies enables her to demonstrate a strong track record across the whole spectrum of HR management practice:

- Global transformational change programmes in the transport sector
- International Talent Management strategies and resourcing
- Organic and acquisitive growth strategies and plans in the service sector
- Optimising performance within matrix organisations
- Trade Union negotiations and relationship management
- Executive team development and coaching
- Business Process Re-engineering
- Creation of global HR teams founded on a model of Business Partnering, Shared Services and Specialist Expertise